

Doplňte must, can('t), should(n't) nebo might (not) podle smyslu.

- a) What a delicious smell! Someone _____ be baking a cake.
b) It _____ be the second street on the left, but I'm not sure.
c) Well he _____ feel that ill if he's gone to the pub.
d) He _____ be a good maths teacher but he can't teach physics at all.
e) I'm hungry. ~ Dinner _____ be ready soon.
f) He's phoned her five times today. He _____ be in love.
g) Her English _____ be that good if she doesn't understand an easy text like that.
h) I _____ be long at the doctor's. His waiting room's usually empty these days.
i) You _____ know Eric Dalloway. He went to the same school as you.
j) You _____ hurt yourself if you're not careful.

Insert must, can('t), should(n't) or might (not).

- a) What a delicious smell! Someone must be baking a cake.
b) It might be the second street on the left, but I'm not sure.
c) Well he can't feel that ill if he's gone to the pub.
d) He might be a good maths teacher but he can't teach physics at all.
e) I'm hungry. ~ Dinner should be ready soon.
f) He's phoned her five times today. He must be in love.
g) Her English can't be that good if she doesn't understand an easy text like that.
h) I shouldn't be long at the doctor's. His waiting room's usually empty these days.
i) You must/might know Eric Dalloway. He went to the same school as you.
j) You might hurt yourself if you're not careful.

